49% of students utilize on-campus recreation facilities, programs, and services.

46% of students say that recreation programs were important in deciding to attend WSU and 59% say recreation facilities are important in deciding to continue at WSU.

66% of students participate in on-campus recreational sports, programs, or activities one or more times per week and 67% of students participate for 30-60 minutes per visit.

53% of students believe that participating in recreation activities and programs has expanded their interest in staying fit and healthy. 70% of students believe that the recreation program at WSU meets their needs.

79% of students believe their participation in recreation programs offered by WSU has improved their weight control and 90% believe participation has increased or improved their overall health.

67% of students did not use campus recreation services due to lack of time, while 40% of students did not use recreation services because they were unaware of offerings.

66% of students use outdoor recreational facilities and 33% use home equipment.

29% of students are currently a member of at least one student club and 11% of students are involved in at least one intramural group, club sport, or organized fitness activity on campus.

75% of students say that fitness equipment is available when they want to use it. 34% of students are satisfied with pool availability. 34% of students believe that recreation facilities, programs, and services are effectively promoted.