Interpersonal Communications Focus Group Questions

1. How has the interpersonal communication skills developed at WSU prepared you for your future career?
2. How has your interpersonal communication developed due to your experiences with [Student Affairs]?
3. What has influenced your interpersonal communication development the most?
4. How does your communication style influence your team's cohesiveness? What impact has your communication style had on the group's future effectiveness?
5. How do others with whom you communicate know you respect them and their ideas?
6. How do you motivate and encourage those with whom you work?
7. When communicating with others, how do you address differing or unpopular perspectives?
8. What does a constructive communication climate look like to you? What role do you play in maintaining one?
9. What is your approach to handling interpersonal conflict?
10. Describe your communication style with your supervisor. Describe your communication style with those you lead.
11. How do you plan to use these skills beyond the scope of this experience?

Enter the name of your department, program, or area in place of [Student Affairs]