Intrapersonal Competence Focus Group Questions

1. What have you learned about yourself as a result of your experience in [this position, department, etc.]?

2. Has anything changed about the way you see yourself because you [volunteered, worked here, etc.]?
   Have you ever asked for feedback from others as part of your experience with [Student Affairs]? How have you used that feedback, if you did?

3. Do you feel either more or less self-confident due to your experience in [Student Affairs]? Why?

4. How effective do you think you've been in your role in [Student Affairs]? Have the skills you've used here to get things done carried over into any other parts of your life?

5. As part of your experience in [Student Affairs] have you had the opportunity to set some goals and work toward them? Were you able to achieve your goals? Looking back, do you think your goals were good ones for you--did they match your values, interests, personality?

6. Do you have a personal philosophy? How do your beliefs and values fit with your experience in [Student Affairs]?

*Enter the name of your department, program, or area in place of [Student Affairs]