

.....But what can I do with a Child and Family Studies degree????

Your possibilities are endless!!!

Early Childhood Education	Early Childhood	Family Studies
Bachelors level education Preschool Kindergarten-Third Grade Infant/Toddler Caregiver Childcare Resource and Referral School-Age Caregiver School-Age Child Care Teacher Teacher Assistant Home Visitor Early Interventionist Mentor Child Advocate Education Coordinator HeadStart Administration School-Age Child Specialist Nanny/In Home Provider Private School Positions in Industry Educational Coordinator	Financial Child Care Management Care Director/Teacher HeadStart Child Care Licensing Child Care Resource and Ref. Parent Educators Social Services Government Child Care Lobbyist Multicultural Work Preschool Child Care Family Child Care Provider Child Care Consultant Book Sales Rep. Public Relations Rep. Juvenile Court Child Life Specialist	Social Services Hospitals Recreational Leader Community Education Court System IRS Police Department Rape Crisis City Planner Recreational Therapists Health Care Rep. Human Resource Mng. Employee Assistance Family Caseworker Childcare Centers Retail Sales Public Relations Manager State Government Juvenile Court
Masters level education Education Educational Psychology Laboratory School Teacher Laboratory School Director Community College Instructor School District Coordinator	Lab School Teacher Lab School Director Social Work Marriage and Family Therapy Psychology Community College Professor	Marriage and Family Therapist School Counselor Gerontology Art/Music Therapist Kinesiotherapist Sex Therapist
Ph. D. level education University Professor in Early Childhood Ed. Human Development Child Development Elementary Principal	University Professor in Early Childhood Ed Human Development Child Development Therapist/Counselor	University Professor Family Studies Therapist/Counselor Public Relations Consultant Ergonomist

For more information, contact Darcy Gregg, ChFam Academic Advisor, at 626-6411 or dgregg@weber.edu or ED248

