ELEMENTARY education

Why choose Elementary Education at WSU?

- Preparation to be an effective educator
- Opportunities for continued professional development in the processes of teaching and student learning in a changing, global society
- Accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE)
- Low student/faculty ratio

What kind of degree is available? Bachelor of Science Degree (BS)

What are the employment opportunities?

There is a high placement rate upon graduation. The major will prepare you to teach in elementary education with two track options: grades K-6 or 1-8. WSU graduates are hired by local districts as well as districts throughout Utah and around the country.

What are the starting salaries for graduates?

In Utah, starting salaries range from $34,000 to $38,000 depending on the district, with the potential of earning $50,000 to $55,000 with several years of service and additional education.

What will I learn in the program?

WSU teacher preparation programs are based on INTASC National and Utah State Office of Education state standards that address the content knowledge, teaching skills, and professional dispositions for beginning teachers. At the conclusion of your program, you will be able to: (1) demonstrate mastery of the subject matter that you teach; (2) use knowledge of child/adolescent development and diversity to teach all of today's children; (3) learn how to plan curriculum, use technology, and foster communication in on-going instructional planning; and (4) collaborate with others as you reflect upon your professional teacher preparation.

Is there an application deadline?

Yes, the department processes applications twice a year. The fall deadline is in September and the spring deadline is in February.

What courses will I take in this program?

The required courses are listed inside this sheet. All listed requirements are subject to change. Always consult an advisor for current requirements.

Where can I find out more about the programs?

ELEMENTARY education

When you complete the elementary program, you are prepared to teach in elementary education. This major has two tracks: K-6 and 1-8; these are the grades you would be licensed to teach.

The Department of Teacher Education follows a Conceptual Framework: "Student Achievement: Teachers, Students, and Community Working Together." This framework delineates the program's purpose, process, outcomes, and evaluation as you progress through the levels of the program.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT: TEACHERS, STUDENTS, AND COMMUNITIES WORKING TOGETHER

PROGRAM ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Declare your major as Elementary Education Applicant in the Department of Teacher Education.
- Admission to the teacher education program is a separate process from WSU admission and is on a provisional basis until the semester you student teach.
- Submit your application to the Department of Teacher Education. (Admission into the teacher education program is a selective process.) Ask your teacher education advisor for a copy of the admission materials.
- After being admitted, you must be fingerprinted and have a background clearance check before starting the professional education course work. If the background check reveals criminal misconduct that has not been cleared by the Utah Professional Practice Commission, admission will be revoked.

ADVISEMENT

You should meet with an advisor in the Teacher Education Advisement Center, located in the Education Building, Room 230. Call 801-626-7694 for more information or to schedule an appointment. All listed requirements are subject to change. Always consult an advisor for current requirements.

GRADE REQUIREMENTS

You must meet minimum grade requirements for major courses, maintain an overall GPA of 3.00 or higher in all college work and achieve at least a "B-" grade in each professional education course to continue in the program.
