

WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY

English as a Second Language
Teaching Minor/Endorsement
Weber State University

The English as a Second Language teaching minor/endorsement is available at Weber State University. Students seeking degrees in elementary, secondary and special education can add this endorsement to their licensure.

The required courses are as follows:

WSU Course number	Course title	Semester(s) offered
Educ 4250/MED 6250	Second Language Acquisition: Theories and Implementation	Fall (each year) Summer (odd years)
Educ 4270/MED 6270	Literacy Strategies for Teaching English Language Learners	Spring (each year) Summer (even years)
Educ 4740	Building Partnerships with ESL/Bilingual Families	Spring, Summer
Engl 4410/ MENG 6410*	Strategies and Methodology of Teaching ESL	Fall, Spring
Engl 4420/MENG 6420	English Phonology and Syntax for ESL Teachers	Fall, Summer
Engl 4450/MENG 6450	ESL/Bilingual Assessment: Theories, Methods and Practices	Fall, Spring
Educ 5770	Field Experience in ESL/Bilingual Education	Fall, Spring (taken during student teaching semester)

*Foreign language majors may substitute FL 4400 for this course.

For more information contact:

Advisement contacts:

Kristin Radulovich
kradulovich@weber.edu
ED 230
(801) 626-6309

Natalie Struhs
nataliestruhs@weber.edu
ED 230A
(801) 626-6636

Dr. David R. Byrd
Assistant professor
davidbyrd@weber.edu
ED 322
(801) 626-7412