

Revised 2/28/11

Weber State University's AmeriCorps program reserves the right to deny any potential member entrance into the AmeriCorps program who has on record, according to any background check of said person, any offenses/misconduct involving a minor, minor-in-possession, drug, and/or alcohol charges or convictions if the potential member will be working with minors in any capacity.

This policy is in addition to the requirements that The Corporation for National and Community Service has in place already.
