

Breaking the Silence: Healing the Shame of Male Survivors of Sexual Abuse and Sexual Assault

This workshop will explore issues surrounding the sexual victimization of males. Included will be a focus on myths surrounding male sexual victimization, distinguishing features between male and female survivors, sexual conflict issues, and clinical dynamics and treatment approaches for male survivors. The presenter will include clinical case material and will provide time for questions and case consultation.

3 CEUs approved by NASW and UPA

For more information call:
801-626-6406

PRESENTER:

Jim Struve, LCSW
One of the founding members of MaleSurvivor.org & Co-Chair of MaleSurvivor Weekends of Recovery

DATE:

FEBRUARY 22, 2013
8:30 AM - 12:30 PM

LOCATION:

Weber State University
Hurst Center for Lifelong Learning Center,
Dumke Hall

Fee: $25 (Includes continental breakfast)