Special Circumstances INDEPENDENT Student Appeal Instructions

Special Circumstance appeals are reviewed for fall semester: July 31, 2016 through October 31, 2016 and for spring semester: January 1, 2017 through March 31, 2017.

You may complete the Special Circumstances Appeal form if you are an independent student whose current financial situation is not accurately reflected by 2015 tax information. Your 2015 income is used to assess your financial need for the 2016-2017 school year, in accordance with federal laws and regulations. If your income is lower due to special circumstances, a financial aid administrator may be able to use estimated year 2016 income to calculate financial need. This financial situation may be due to loss of employment, separation or divorce, death of spouse, unusual out of pocket medical expenses, or other circumstances. Your appeal is complete only when you submit documentation that supports your circumstance to the Financial Aid Office. Your appeal will not be considered until all necessary documents have been submitted.

Select one category from the following list that most closely describes your special circumstance. Read the description carefully and attach all of the documentation requested under that category.

YOU MUST ALSO SUBMIT A PERSONAL STATEMENT DESCRIBING YOUR CIRCUMSTANCE.

- Loss or reduction of employment
  You and/or your spouse earned money in 2015 and have a reduction in hours, or have lost employment for at least 10 weeks in 2016 that has resulted in a reduction of wages. Ten (10) weeks must have passed prior to submission of this appeal for either circumstance. APPEALS SUBMITTED BEFORE TEN (10) WEEKS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
  You must provide copies of all of the following:
  - written verification from the former employer(s) that indicates start and end date of employment or reduction of hours and the amount of your (and/or your spouse’s) year-to-date gross earnings, severance pay, vacation, or retirement payout;
  - a written statement from your (or your spouse’s) current or future employer(s) that indicates you or your spouse’s expected gross earning for the calendar year 2016. Include copies of your two most recent pay stubs.
  - eligibility forms that indicate dates and amount of unemployment benefits.

- Separation, divorce, or death
  You have already filed your annual Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and since that time, you have become separated or divorced, or a spouse has died.
  You must provide copies of all of the following that apply to your circumstances:
  - legal separation papers or divorce decree
  - death certificate
Loss of taxed/untaxed income or benefit
Your parent received unemployment compensation, or other taxed or untaxed income or benefit in 2014, and has completely lost that income or benefit for at least 10 weeks in the calendar year 2015. Ten (10) weeks without compensation must have passed prior to your submission of this appeal. Appeals submitted before 10 weeks will not be accepted. The untaxed income or benefit must be from a public or private agency, a company, or from a person due to court order. (Do not include loss of veterans benefits). Income and benefits include: Social Security Benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), child support, untaxed retirement or disability benefits, welfare benefits, etc.
You must provide copies of all of the following:
- contracts, agency notices, or legal papers that indicate the date your parent’s taxed/untaxed income or benefit was terminated, what amount of income came from that source, and how that income was used.

Loss of one-time income
Your parent received a one-time income in 2014 that will not occur in 2015 (e.g., rollover into a Roth IRA, moving expense allowance, back-year Social Security payments, or a divorce settlement). Special circumstance consideration will not be given if this one-time income is a result of an inheritance, job bonus or over time compensation, gambling winnings, pension, capital gain, insurance settlements, or early distributions of retirement accounts.
You must provide copies of all of the following:
- contracts, agency notices, or legal papers that indicate the date your parent’s one-time income was terminated, what amount of income came from that source, and how that income was used.

Unusual, unreimbursed, out of pocket medical care expenses
Note: Only expenses already paid directly by the parent(s) will be considered.
Unexpected/nonrecurring out of pocket medical expenses—Your parent(s) have paid out of pocket for unusual or unexpected nonrecurring medical expenses for a member of your household that are not reimbursed. Only those costs not covered by insurance or another agency may be considered.
The payment of insurance premiums, regular health maintenance, and routine expenses such as eyeglasses, birth control prescriptions, and elective or cosmetic procedures (e.g., orthodontic braces) are not considered unusual medical expenses and will not be considered for the Special Circumstances Appeal.
You must provide copies of all of the following:
- statement from a health care provider that documents the unusual condition;
- receipts or copies of canceled checks that demonstrate out of pocket payment of medical treatment for this condition.
