Dear Student, Community/School Representatives:

Multicultural Youth Conference Preparing for the "Real World"

Weber State University would like to invite your 9th-12 grade students to the Preparing for the "Real World" conference that will be held on Friday April 27-28, 2012.

As a follow up to November's conference, this conference will provide high school students at additional grade levels with an opportunity to have a collegiate experience and learn the expectations for educational success. This program will include an overnight stay at the Comfort Suites Hotel located at 2250 S 1200 W Ogden, UT 84401. Our keynote speakers will be Shayla Rivera , Dr. Lee Jones and Dr. Brenda Burrell.

This youth college and career diversity conference will help selected high school students learn how to take advantage of learning and professional resources that will increase the overall college matriculation and completion rate for targeted students. High school students will participate in a two day on-campus experience. The program will include motivational speakers, career exploration, an interactive cultural activity, and college preparation workshops, with an emphasis on college options, leadership opportunities, and cultural identity. This event will be combined with a "Come to Campus" Talent/Step Show featuring the Las Vegas Kappa League of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. designed for parents to come out and support their child's future endeavors and allow their students to show their cultural talents. There is no cost to attend this conference. Please come and join us as we Prepare our Future Leaders for the "Real World."
