

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE

Fall Semester Classes 2009

Schedule

Fall Semester Finals are held between Monday, December 7th and Thursday, December 10th. All exams are scheduled for 1 hour and 50 minutes. Block classes and Saturday-only classes will hold their final exam on the last day of class during the class period. Exams will be held in the same classroom as the course unless otherwise scheduled by the instructor.

Final exams are scheduled for each class based on the class days (MWF, TR, etc) and the class' start time (7:30, 8:30, etc). A course final exam will be held on the first class day (MWF, TR, etc) for class start times beginning with an odd number (7:30, 8:30, 9:30, etc), and the second class day (MWF, TR, etc) for classes with start times with an even number (7:30, 8:30, 9:30, etc). For example, if you have a MWF course at 9:30 am, the exam will be held on Monday, December 7, at 9:30am. Courses not starting on the half hour will begin their exam on the next half hour. For example, a TR class which began at 9:00am will have their final exam on Tuesday, December 8 at 9:30am.

Exceptions:

- The exams for Math 0950, 0955, 0960, & 1010 held during the day (before 4:30pm) will be held Monday, December 7th from 3:30-5:20. Math 0950, 0955, 0960, & 1010 courses taken 4:30 and later will hold their exams with the traditional schedule below.
- Conflicts: Conflicting exams will be held on Thursday, December 10th, from 2:30-4:20.

Note:

- Friday only classes will have their exams scheduled on Wednesday, but at the same class time.
- Examination hours for classes involving lecture and laboratories are determined by the hours scheduled for the lecture.
- Examinations for classes that begin and end on dates different from the start and stop dates for the standard 15-week semester (including Saturday classes) will be given during the last regular class periods.
- Questions concerning the final exam schedule, and requests for room reservations for final examinations, should be referred to the Registration Office, extension 6052.

Final Examinations, Policies and Procedures Manual (PPM) 4-21, stipulates that:

A. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, comprehensive final examinations are to be given only during the designated examination period for each term. These periods are scheduled by the University and not by the individual instructor. Comprehensive final examinations shall not be given during the week preceding the designated examination period for each term. Courses exempt from this policy are graduate courses, online courses, courses that meet only once a week, 1 – 2 credit hour courses, courses that use performance as a final assessment, and courses that use a laboratory experience as a final assessment. Make-up examinations and/or non-comprehensive exams previously scheduled on the syllabus may be given. However, at least five calendar days must separate a terminal course exam and a comprehensive final examination.

B. Students with special needs should make arrangements with their instructors. (For A.D.A. concerns, refer to PPM 3-34)
