The NIRSA/StudentVoice campus recreation survey examines the usage of campus recreation facilities, the impact of these services, and students’ satisfaction with these services. The survey was administered 3/14/2010 to 5/5/2010. A total of 348 students responded for a 5% sample error at a 95% confidence level.

61% of students utilize campus recreation facilities, programs, or services
- 92% of these students utilize Swenson gym
- 38% use Swenson/Stromberg fields
- 31% of those students participate in intramurals
- 23% of those students participate in club sports.
- 43% use the pool
- 42% participate in fitness classes
- 39% participate in outdoor adventure activities or trips
- 87% of students say the facilities are clean and safe
- 69% of students are satisfied with the hours of operation of the gym on Mon-Fri
- 53% of students are satisfied with the hours of operation of the gym on Sat/Sun
- 75% of these students believe that the professional staff members are friendly.

Of those student utilizing campus recreation facilities, programs, and services,
- 76% of students believe that their participation in campus recreation has increased or improved their academic performance
- 88% of students believe that participation in campus recreation has increased or improved their stress management
- 93% of students reported that participation in campus recreation increased or improved their feeling of well-being
- 38% of students would be willing to pay additional student fees for a new recreation facility (53% of these students would be willing to pay $25 or less each semester)

If improving/expanding recreational facilities,
- 37% of students would like to see personal training offered.
- 40% of students would like to see additional cardio equipment.
- 40% would like to see additional open and/or park space
- 40% would like see to a juice bar or other food options
- 35% would like to see additional aquatic offerings.

65% of students participate in outdoor activities (e.g., biking, hiking) in addition to using other recreational facilities

96% of students say that maintaining a healthy lifestyle will be important after they leave Weber State University

If starting over, 85% of students would choose to attend WSU again

83% of students would recommend the campus recreation facilities, programs, and services to others.