Weber State University
2013 Campus Climate Survey

The campus climate survey explored student views of diversity and diversity-related learning opportunities on campus. The survey also investigated student perceptions of the campus climate in regards to diversity and their experiences with discrimination and harassment on-campus. The survey was administered 11/12/2013 -11/30/2013. 505 students responded for a 4.3% sample error with 95% confidence level.

Diversity & Learning:
- 89% of students believe their campus is diverse.
- 28% of students take advantage of the opportunities provided by WSU to learn about diversity-related issues.
- 52% of students discuss diversity-related issues with friends.
- 63% of students feel they have become more open-minded about diversity since starting college; 56% of students have learned/become more aware about other races/ethnicities/cultures; 51% of other political views; 50% of other religions/spirituality; 53% about life experiences.
- 53% of students believe that the curriculum and course offerings at WSU reflect the lives, perceptions, and contributions of people from diverse backgrounds.
- 80% of students believe that WSU is accessible to individuals with physical disabilities; 82% of individuals who reported being registered with a disability reported so.
- 66% of students believe that WSU is supportive of LGBT individuals; 79% of individuals identifying in this way believe so.
- 89% of students believe that WSU is supportive of people with different ethnic backgrounds. 91% of individuals of an ethnic background believe so.
- 86% of students believe that interacting with individuals of diverse backgrounds will help them after college.

Campus Climate:
- 86% of students report being comfortable being friends with someone of a different gender; 88% with someone of a different religion; 89% with someone of a different socioeconomic status; 70% with someone of a different sexual orientation; 81% with someone with a disability.
- 91% of students would describe the university as welcoming and 92% of students view WSU as respectful.
- 27% of students feel that the racial/ethnic tension is slightly tense on campus. 6% of students feel that the racial/ethnic tension is somewhat to very tense.
- 84% of students feel that they are treated fairly at WSU.

Discrimination/ Harassment:
- 56% of students do not know where to find information related to discrimination and harassment policies and reporting procedures.
- 12% of students would not feel comfortable reporting an act of discrimination or harassment that they had experienced.
- Within the last 12 months on campus, 8% of students have experienced discriminatory behavior and 6% have experienced harassment.
- 5% of students have been singled out in class because of their identity (e.g., race, gender, sexual orientation, etc.) within the last 12 months.
- 35% of those individuals cite faculty members as the source and 53% say the incident took place in a classroom setting.