COMBATING TERRORISM
The struggle against terror in India
September 29, 2014

Social Incongruity and Left-wing Extremism in India
9:30 a.m., Social Science Building Room 119

Banditry: A Case of Veerappan, India’s Al Capone
10:30 a.m., Social Science Building Room 119

Combating Terrorism: Indian Experience
12:30 p.m., Shepherd Union Wildcat Theater

Free and open to the public
Contact T.R. Reddy: 801-626-6674, trreddy@weber.edu

K. Arkesh
Arkesh, Inspector General of Police, has helped rescue hostages, stop the hijacking of a plane, lead special operations in confronting terrorist forces in northeast India, and capture notorious terrorist Veerappan.