CONGRATULATIONS JOE FAVERO

Our very own Joe Favero is the new WSU Student Body President.
I just want to tell you a little bit about Joe. He is currently the honors and BIS senator, was the vice president of community service for the National Society of Collegiate Scholars in 2013, was a member of the Institute Council for the Latter-day Saint Student Association last fall, and he has logged over 90 service hours so far.

He has done all of this while being a member of the Aletheia Club. He maintains a 3.75 GPA, he takes an honors class each year, attends book club (sometimes both semesters) and he does it all with a smile. I think Joe is the busiest student I know. Thanks for your hard work and your example!
