Parking Passes

2013-2014 parking passes have arrived and you can pick yours up at Dana’s office in the Miller Administration Building between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Monday-Friday. You must be prepared to tell her the make, model, color, and license plate number. The parking passes are good for the W lots and are valid for one year. The last day to pick up your parking pass from Dana is October the 11th. After that you will have to go to parking services.

Service Hours

Every Aletheia student must complete 12 volunteer hours every year. So watch for volunteer opportunities. We have some volunteer opportunities in the works and will update you through email and on the website.

We are still working out some kinks with the Weber Sync system for tracking your service hours. We will send an email with information as soon as we get them worked out.
Honors Membership

Something new that everyone needs to know is that you are in the Honors Program due to your membership in Aletheia. You can go into the Honors Center or go to the Honors page through your student portal to learn about honors opportunities.

Honors Classes

One of the requirements as an Aletheia member is to take one honors class per year. Classes filled up quickly this semester. If you could not fit one of the classes into your schedule, make sure you plan on taking an honors class in the spring semester.

Honors Information Session

On Monday, October 28th, there will be an information session for all Honors students, Aletheia students, and BIS students. This session will focus on the Tutoring Center and the Writing Center, both as helpful resources and as possible employment for students. Bring all your questions and concerns and let us help you navigate through university life. Bring your friends!

The session will be in the Honors Center, Library 225 at 12:30pm. There will be a light luncheon available for students who attend the session. If you are an Honors students, remember to bring your punch card to win prizes.
