MCJ Program Newsletter

MCJ Program now offering in-program scholarships!

Do you need money to help pay for tuition? Have you completed a minimum of 12 credits in the MCJ Program and have at least 3 more credits to go before graduating? Is your overall MCJ Program GPA 3.5 or higher? If so, you might qualify for either the MCJ Professional Merit Scholarship (open to those working full-time in a criminal justice related profession and who are in good-standing with their agency, department or office) or the MCJ Civilian Merit Scholarship (for those not working full-time in a criminal justice related profession). Each scholarship is Getting to know our new Department Chair

As Dr. David Lynch steps down as Chair of the Department of Criminal Justice after six years of service, we are pleased to welcome Dr. Brent Horn as our new Department Chair!

Dr. Horn graduated with a doctorate degree in Analytical Chemistry from Brigham Young University. After completing his education, he went to work for Sandia National Laboratory in Livermore, CA, working on national defense projects. He was part of a team that developed one of the first handheld chemical and biological detection systems for first responders. After joining the CJ faculty at WSU as director of the forensic science programs, he also began working with the Chemistry Section of the Utah State Crime Laboratory, becoming an ABC certified drug analyst. His research interests include forensic photography, latent fingerprint analysis, firearm analysis, and forensic science administration.

worth $1000 towards your MCJ tuition (sorry, funds cannot be used for books or other expenses and do not have any cash value) and will be awarded at the end of each semester (dependent on available funds).

For those who feel they qualify for the MCJ Professional Merit Scholarship, please click on the following link, login using your WSU e-mail address, and take the quick two-question survey by 5:00 pm MST on July 28. Awardees for both scholarships will be notified during the first week of August.

For more information, please read the “MCJ Program Scholarship Criteria” attached to the e-mail you received this newsletter in or contact the Graduate Director, Dr. Bruce Bayley, at: bbayley@weber.edu.

Congratulations Summer Graduates

We know how hard you’ve worked to get this far and are looking forward to learning about all the great things you will do! Please be sure to stay in touch so we can share in your successes!
