Information for all WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship applicants/recipient:

1. To qualify for the WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship, high school juniors and seniors must have an index score of at least 106 and maintain a cumulative WSU GPA of at least 3.25. Note: Sophomores are not eligible for the scholarship.

2. The WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship is contingent upon funding and may be reviewed each semester.

3. The WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship is only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. The scholarship cannot be applied toward the summer semester.

4. Students MUST apply each academic year for the WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship.

5. The WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship can be used toward day, evening, and online WSU courses taken during the fall or spring semesters. Note: The WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship will not cover Independent Study courses.

6. Students must maintain a cumulative WSU GPA of at least 3.25 in order to keep the WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship.

7. Students whose cumulative WSU GPA falls below 3.25 but remains at or above 2.5 will be put on probation and may receive the WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship for one semester. Students on probation must meet with their WSU NUAMES Early College Advisor and their NUAMES High School Counselor before they will be allowed to register for (or begin attending) classes. These meetings will be used to determine which courses the student should take to improve their cumulative WSU GPA to 3.25. During the probationary term, students must raise their cumulative WSU GPA to at least a 3.25. Students with a cumulative WSU GPA below 3.25 at the end of their probationary term will not be eligible for the WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship for any subsequent semester until a cumulative WSU GPA of 3.25 is once again obtained.

8. Students whose cumulative WSU GPA falls below 2.5, but not below 2.0, will lose their WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship, but can continue in Early College at their own expense until their cumulative WSU GPA is raised to at least a 3.25.

9. Students whose cumulative WSU GPA falls below 2.0 will not be eligible to participate in further courses through Early College.

10. Students who add or cancel courses after the first week of the semester must report their intention to do so to their WSU NUAMES Early College advisor. Students who drop courses after the first week will be responsible for any costs associated with the dropped courses.

11. Course withdrawals may affect your WSU NUAMES Early College scholarship eligibility. Students who plan to withdraw from any WSU course(s) must report their intent to withdraw to their WSU NUAMES Early College advisor before withdrawing. Repeated withdrawals or failure to report withdrawals can lead to ineligibility for future scholarships.

12. Students must be residents of the United States and have established Utah residency for tuition purposes.

Students are always responsible to pay for any course, lab, or exam fee associated with their courses. Any late fees or collections charges that are accrued due to none payment will also be the student’s responsibility to pay. Textbooks and other course supplies are also the student’s responsibility to purchase.

Other important information:

1. FERPA law prohibits university employees to disclose student information to anyone but the student unless a Student Information Release form is on file that authorizes a specific person to access the student’s account.

2. Students have the opportunity to meet with their WSU NUAMES Early College advisors each semester to develop their class schedule.

3. Students participating in the WSU Early College program are engaged in a university environment and will be held to a university level of responsibility.

4. All WSU communication is done via your WSU email account. It is necessary that you check your WSU email account regularly.

5. Students participating in the WSU Early College program are assumed to be adults by all university faculty and staff and are expected to conduct themselves as such. Early College students understand that all classroom discussions and assignments are geared toward adult students.
