Sheriff’s letter to staff not a religious play

I don’t believe the Weber County sheriff’s letter to his staff was a violation of their civil rights regarding their religion. It was not, as the sheriff’s letter stated, a violation of church and state (Jan. 13). In my view, the sheriff’s letter was not an investment offense. It was a reasonable approach to a religious practice

Sheriff’s letter to staff not a religious play

I don’t believe the Weber County sheriff’s letter to his staff was a violation of their civil rights regarding their religion. It was not, as the sheriff’s letter stated, a violation of church and state (Jan. 13). In my view, the sheriff’s letter was not an investment offense. It was a reasonable approach to a religious practice.