PARENT'S RIGHTS UNDER FERPA

ACTING ON BEHALF OF YOUR STUDENT

On the first day of the student's admitted semester at Weber State University, all rights to the student's information transfer to the student and are protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), regardless of the student's age.

WSU is prohibited by federal law from providing information about a student's educational record to anyone without the student's permission.

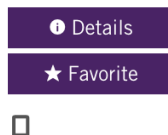

If a student needs to have someone else access their information, like a parent, other guardian or spouse, the student must complete the Student Information Release Form to grant access to their records at WSU.

Students can access the Student Information Release Form by logging in to their eWeber account at weber.edu/eweber and searching for "Student Information Release Form."

As the student completes the release form they may approve others for view only or edit access to some or all of the following:

- » Admissions records (application information, residency, etc)
- » Student records (transcripts, registration information, schedule information, academic standing, etc)
- » Financial Aid and Scholarship records
- » Advising records

EARLY COLLEGE

Early College is a program for high school students capable of performing university-level work. In Early College you take courses on one of WSU's campuses or through WSU Online and can earn both university and high school credit.

For more information about Weber State's Early College Program visit weber.edu/earlycollege.

AP CLASSES

You can compliment your concurrent enrollment experience and show your determination and capability for rigorous college work by taking AP classes in high school. College credit is earned when you pass AP exams. If you pass the AP class but not the exam you will not receive college credit. AP credit can counted towards general education requirements but may not count towards your college major.

Visit weber.edu/admissions/aptests.html for more details.

CAMPUS SAFETY

Your safety while attending Weber State is extremely important to us. Code Purple is an emergency notification system that gives Weber State University the ability to communicate health and safety emergency information quickly—by text, voice and email message. By enrolling in Code Purple, you can receive safety-related information, regardless of your location.

At Safe@Weber Violence Prevention & Advocacy Services, we envision a future where all relationships are healthy and built upon a foundation of safety and respect. This future is full of engaged, supportive and accountable communities. The cultivation of healthy relationships is accomplished through active respect, care, support, healthy boundaries and shared power.

We strive to create a community where there is no more violence, sexism, racism, ablism, classism, homophobia, transphobia or xenophobia.

Weber State's Annual Security Report and Fire Safety Report provides info about reporting crime, crime statistics, crime prevention, alcohol and drug policies, fire statistics, etc. You may request a paper copy by calling 801-626-7440.

For more info about reporting, safety, options, processes, and a list of on and off campus resources, go to: weber.edu/safeatweber.

FROM HIGH SCHOOL TO COLLEGE

STATUS SWITCH

We've made it easier than ever to make the transition from a high school concurrent enrollment student to a fully admitted WSU student. You don't need to reapply for admission, simply follow these steps during your Senior year of high school:

1. Login to your eWeber portal at weber.edu
2. Click on the Admissions tab, or search for “Status Switch” and click on the light-switch icon to open the app.
3. Complete just a few short questions and you're done!

KNOW YOUR OPTIONS

WHAT CLASSES ARE AVAILABLE THROUGH WSU CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT?

Concurrent Enrollment courses are made available through your high school and Weber State University based on qualified high school faculty. For a complete list of what's offered at your high school, contact your high school counselor. Learn more at weber.edu/concurrent.

ORIENTATION AND ADVISING

All Concurrent Enrollment students are strongly encouraged to complete a short online orientation and advising module to learn about the benefits and considerations of taking concurrent enrollment courses. If you are interested in earning a credential prior to high school graduation, you must complete this module.

To complete this orientation, log into your eWeber account and search for the New Student Orientation app. Click on the app and begin your orientation and advising experience. If you have questions please contact us at ceadvising@weber.edu.

CATTRACKS

One of the great online advising tools available to you is CatTracks, which can help you track progress towards a degree.

To use CatTracks, simply login to your eWeber portal, click on the “Academics” tab and click on the CatTracks app.

Visit weber.edu/CatTracks for a complete list of features.

USE YOUR WILDCARD!

As a WSU Concurrent Enrollment student, you are eligible for a Wildcard, which grants access to:

- Free use of the WSU library.
- Access to computer labs on campus.
- Local student discounts with participating vendors.

Wildcard benefits are subject to change.*

CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT EDGE SCHOLARSHIP!

Did you know if you complete at least 12 Concurrent Enrollment credits through any Utah institution with a “B” average you can qualify for our Concurrent Enrollment Edge Scholarship?

Visit weber.edu/concurrentenrollmentedge for details about this incredible opportunity.

COME VISIT CAMPUS!

As part of your campus visit you can find out about majors that relate to your interests, get information on scholarships and financial aid, check out campus housing and much more.

Schedule a tour at weber.edu/visit or call us at 801-626-6005.
