

Name and Title

John Schwiebert, Professor of English

Education

Ph.D., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN, 1989

M.A., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, 1986

B.A., Carleton College, Northfield, MN, 1976

Awards & Honors

AHA! Faculty Award, 2019

Robert M. Hogge Award, 2014

Courses Taught

English 1010, 2010, 3210 (introductory, intermediate, and advanced composition)

English 2200: Introduction to Literature

English 3350: Journals, Notebooks, and Creativity

English 3610: American Literature to 1860

English 4630: British Literature, Neoclassic and Romantic

English 4710: Eminent Writers (R.W. Emerson, Walt Whitman, Emily Dickinson, Eugene O'Neill)

MENG 6240: American Transcendentalism

MENG 6240: Neoclassic and British Romantic Literature

MENG 6710: Seminars on Emerson, Whitman, Dickinson, O'Neill

Research Interests & Publications

Interests:

Antebellum American literature; American and British romanticism; notebooks, journals, and diaries; biography; annotations and marginalia; English pedagogy; interrelationships between reading and writing; literature and personal formation; contemplative traditions in literature and religion; literature and reform; Samuel Johnson; William Blake; Walt Whitman; Emily Dickinson.

Publications:

- A Literary Companion to Walt Whitman. McFarland (forthcoming, 2021).
- Reading and Writing from Literature (a literature for composition textbook). Houghton Mifflin, 1997, 2001, 2005.
- Writing Across the Curriculum: An Annotated Bibliography. Greenwood, 1993 (co-compiled with Chris M. Anson and Michael Williamson).
- The Frailest Leaves: Walt Whitman's Poetic Technique and Style in the Short Poem. Peter Lang, 1992.

WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY

Lindquist College of Arts & Humanities

— DEPARTMENT OF —
ENGLISH LANGUAGE & LITERATURE