

Introducing a student loan solution from TIAA

Are you feeling overwhelmed by student debt? Or trying not to think about it? Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) is a federal program designed to reduce the burden of student loan debt for people who work in public service. Weber State University is considered a public service employer for the purposes of these programs.

Simply put, PSLF pairs the immediate relief of an income-driven repayment plan (to make your monthly payments affordable) with the longer-term relief of loan forgiveness. You've probably heard some negative press about the difficulties borrowers have faced in attempting to realize the benefits from these programs.

TIAA has joined forces with Savi, a social impact technology company, to help Weber State University employees benefit from forgiveness programs like PSLF. The service helps eligible borrowers to understand their choices, lower their monthly payments, and enroll in a forgiveness program. You can think of them as an advocate – someone who cares as much as you do about finding a good outcome.

Between January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019, based on Savi's internal measurements, Savi users saw average projected savings of $1,880 per year. Money saved is money in your pocket to use for other financial goals, whether it's building up an emergency fund, saving more for retirement, or paying off other debts.

What to expect when applying for forgiveness

Savi streamlines the entire process, from helping you enroll in forgiveness programs to ongoing support and payment tracking, ensuring you remain on track from start to forgiveness—all for a small fee.* Here's a snapshot of what will happen.

1. First, you need to enroll in Savi Essential Service.
2. Next, provide your basic information. From there, Savi handles the rest—from checking your forgiveness application for accuracy and completion all the way to submission.
3. After some verifications with us, which Savi handles, everything is sent to your loan servicer.
4. You'll receive reminders from Savi for ongoing things you may need to do afterward, like an annual submission to the PSLF program. That way you stay in compliance with all of the particulars that go along with forgiveness programs.

We're so excited this opportunity is available to our employees. If you haven't yet, take a minute and find out how much you could lower your monthly payment.
