

Weber State University: Annie Taylor Dee School of Nursing

Multicultural Nursing Student Association

This all-inclusive group celebrates & supports historically under-represented nurses in our community (racial/ethnic minorities, international, LGBTQ+, etc.) by connecting you with:

Other students from diverse backgrounds

Professional organizations specifically designed for you

WSU resources designed to support you

Underserved populations in our community (& advocate for change)

Area junior high & high school students to share about nursing

The WSU National Student Nurses' Association
