DOONESBURY

reason? Even though the computerized refusal to reveal the times beyond a 10,000th of a second. According to the officials had actually timed the race to the most interesting part historic race. Yet for me, women’s downhill an time is remarkable, and could cover a course of Olympic ski competition.

in the history of alpine hundredth of a second, with a time of 1 minute 41.57 seconds. women’s downhill ski carries a lesson that to witness an event that opportunity to attend several events on television. I follow the contented myself by watching the games

we're inclined to

A

Bishop and the environmentalists

The meetings have a key purpose Included in the meetings are rep Rep. Bishop is responsible for since I was a pre-teen. My interest's been a fan of the Olympics 've been a fan of the Olympics

High-density housing will ruin feel of Hooper

High-density housing will ruin feel of Hooper

According to the computed timer, one skiier had a faster time than the other. However, the timers refused to reveal the times beyond a hundredth decimal point. What was their reason?