

Hello again from the Geosciences Department with a very short and sweet newsletter this week. We hope you find these weekly emails informative and helpful. Please feel welcome to reply back to these emails, or contact the person listed within any given piece of information, with any questions that you may have.

Weber's Viking Geologist: The Life of Professor John G. Lind: The Stewart Library University Archives presents, "Weber's Viking Geologist: The Life of Professor John G. Lind." Please stop by this Open House for a reception and viewing of his exhibit and collection. They'll have Scandinavian and geology-themed treats and you'll have the chance to learn about one of the most compelling figures from Weber's past. The event will be held Tuesday, October 30, between 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m in the Stewart Library's Lower Level WSU Archives. Dr. Ford, Chair of Geosciences, will offer a few remarks about Professor Lind at 2:00 pm. For more information please contact Jamie Weeks at jweeks@weber.edu or 801-626-6486. Please also see the attached flyer.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon "Initiates" New Members: WSU's chapter (Eta Gamma) of SGE, the academic honor society for geoscience students, has three new members for Fall 2012: Mechele Clinger; Matthew Collins; and Rhett Howell. CONGRATULATIONS! The next membership drive will be in January 2013.

Another gorgeous view during a Geosciences field trip. How's this for a beautiful office?

Have a great weekend!
