Crafting a Meaningful Life: SPECIAL KEYNOTE

Employee Learning Week wraps up with a special keynote from Utah living legend, Mary Crafts. After building the most celebrated catering company in Utah, Culinary Crafts, Mary now has turned her attention to helping others build their dreams!

Registration opens up on February 14th!

At each class, you will:

- Get a chance to win a Dr. Seuss book!
- Be entered into our giveaways at the end of the week!
- Each class = one entry!

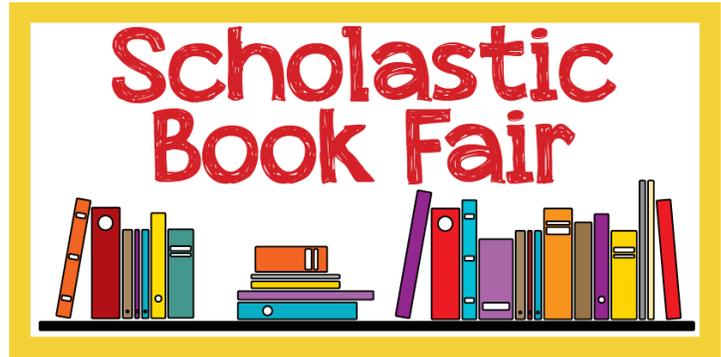

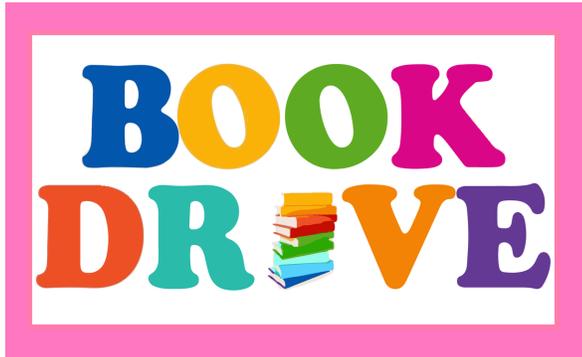

On Friday, join us for a "Green Eggs & Ham" breakfast at 9:00am, followed by our special keynote, and finish with our prize giveaways for those who participated all week long!

Must be present to win.

For more information on our ELW 2020 Presenters, go to Training Tracker!

March 2nd: National Read Across America Day

The Employee Learning Week Committee, in partnership with the WSU Bookstore, is excited to host a BOOK DRIVE and a BOOK FAIR during the week to celebrate learning!

WSU Bookstore: Lower Level in the Shepherd Union Building

Hours of Operation

Mon - Thurs: 8:00am - 5:00pm

Fri: 8:00am - 4:30pm

The Scholastic Book Fair includes both adult and children's books.

Books will be donated to the YCC Family Crisis Center & The Lantern House.

March 5th: 10TH ANNUAL SUPERVISOR CONFERENCE

Celebrate a decade of our WSU Supervisor Conference and learn how to think and act like a leader.

Everyone Deserves a GREAT Manager

with Scott Jeffrey Miller of FranklinCovey

What made you a successful employee doesn't necessarily make you a great manager. Scott will share the six critical practices for leading a team. Build competence and confidence; learn tactics to develop as a leader; and gain ideas to turn your people into an engaged, high-performing team. Pre-register to receive a FREE copy of his book!

Show Up, Be Involved, Stay Relevant, Be GREAT

with WSU Trustee, Amanda K. Covington of The Larry H. Miller Group

To be a great manager you must first be a great employee yourself. Hear insights and examples of success in six areas of workplace relevancy:

- Your brand
- Your willingness
- Your value
- Your network
- Your knowledge
- Your attitude

Breakfast Included!!
Register in Training Tracker for Course #250-01
