

WOMEN IN THE WORKPLACE

Participants will learn be able to identify at least 5 (or more) challenges that women in the US currently face in the workplace. In addition, they will be able to verbalize why diversity and equality in the workplace benefits businesses and society as a whole and be able to identify three (or more) strategies that women (and men) can take to level the playing field. This workshop is available at no cost. To register, click HERE.

Sabine Weil, CMHC

Sabine Weil is a CMHC living and exploring in Utah. She graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona then continued with her education to obtain her Master of Counseling from the University of Phoenix. Sabine is trauma certified and feels most comfortable working with individuals or families who are experiencing any variety of problems – from relationships issues to anxiety and/or depression to stress management or trauma. She has worked for many years helping people who struggle with substance abuse and other addictions. Most recently working with children and adolescents in school environments. Her favorite clientele are individuals, couples, and families. However, she views herself as a golden retriever meaning she is happy to work with everyone! Sabine has a deep regard and respect for the individuals she works with and believes that her job as a therapist is simply to be a catalyst in her clients own healing.
