Purpose of Program Review

The primary purpose of program review at Weber State University is to improve academic programs. An academic program may consist of an entire department which houses several majors, or an academic program may be a component of a department. Program reviews are not conducted to expressly identify individual programs for discontinuance. Reviews will result in an identification of program strengths, weaknesses, and recommendations for change. The program faculty, responsible academic dean, and provost will respond in writing to these recommendations as part of a program-improvement plan.

Responsibilities of Program Review Committee

The program review committee is charged with the following responsibilities:

- 1. Review of the content of the program to ensure that it is consistent with high standards and practices within the discipline.
- 2. Review resources (faculty, facilities and selected budgets, such as travel budgets) to ensure that they are consistent with supporting a quality program.
- 3. Identify strengths and weaknesses of the program.
- 4. Note any concerns or recommendations about the rates of recruitment of new students, placement of graduates and sensitivity to community and professional needs.
- 5. Review sufficiency of the evidence of student learning.

Program Review Process

Program reviews are conducted on a 5 to 7 year cycle. Exceptions to this schedule may occur as a result of previous review recommendations or outside accreditation schedules.

The faculty representing a department scheduled for program review develops an extensive self-study report during the fall semester. The final self-study report goes through a series of approvals culminating with sign off from the Dean of the appropriate college. The purpose of the self-study is twofold. First, it provides an opportunity for department faculty to collaborate at a program-level perspective to consider their programs and the status or 'health' of those programs. Second, the self-study document is sent to members of the program review committee to provide them with information and background about the program under study, to help those individuals become better acquainted with the program they are being asked to evaluate.

At the conclusion of the site visit, recommendations and commendations are compiled by the site visit team chair and presented in a report to the department chair. The chair shares the report with the program faculty who is then given an opportunity to formally respond to that report. All reports and responses are then forwarded to the appropriate Dean who also develops a response.

At the beginning of the fall semester following the site visit, the Dean's response along with the self-study, review recommendations/commendations, and faculty response are forwarded to the Provost's Office. Program reviews are then distributed to the institutional reviewing committee (often the Faculty Senate Executive Committee) and a formal review is scheduled with this committee and the department chair(s). The department chair makes a presentation to the committee; the committee asks questions of the department chair; finally, the committee makes a recommendation to the Provost about the program under review.

The final step is development of program review reports by the Provost for distribution to and consideration by the university's Board of Trustees and the Utah State Board of Regents. These reports are developed and delivered during the spring semester.

Self-study Format and Standards

The most critical element of program review is the self-study that is prepared by the program faculty. The self-study document is both a description and an analysis of important aspects of an academic program. Once this document has been completed, it is reviewed and approved by the responsible Academic Dean prior to its dissemination. The self-study is approximately 25-30+ pages in length, exclusive of appendices, and should follow the format described below. An executive summary of the self-study is also prepared by the Program Faculty. This summary document is 3-5 pages in length, exclusive of the appendices and includes brief information about the program under review.

Program Evaluation Worksheet

FOR USE BY PROGRAM REVIEW TEAM MEMBERS

This form is to be used by each team member to record program data and information during the team visit. The following quality ratings are suggested:

- S Strength; especially effective practice or condition
- G Good; meets expected standards
- C Concern; action could be needed in the future
- W Weakness; action needed
- X Did not evaluate indicate why the area was not evaluated.

At the conclusion of the visit, leave the original of this form with the team chair, who will use it to prepare the draft statement for the institution.

STANDARD A - MISSION STATEMENT

Evaluate how effectively the mission statement articulates the following elements.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
a	The expected outcomes of the program need to be clearly defined.		Program meets or exceeds all outcomes—despite their sometimes limited resources
b	A process by which these accomplishments are determined and periodically assessed based upon the constituencies served by the program.	S	The program is remarkably honest and forthright in its self-assessments.
c	A clearly defined educational program, including a curriculum that enables graduates to achieve the mission.	3	The program's devotion to providing students with practical, professional experiences in the field. We feel it might behove the program to promote this dimension of the student experience, both at the department level and at the university level.
d	The program mission statement must be appropriate to and support the mission statements of both the college housing the program and the university.	S

STANDARD B – CURRICULUM

Evaluate the effectiveness of the curriculum based on the following elements.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
a.	The program should demonstrate that the curriculum for each degree and for any general education/service courses offered by the program is the result of thoughtful curriculum planning and review processes.	S	Various notes in the self-assessment indicate an intention to revise or improve certain classes, which suggests to us that the program is quite thoughtful about the effectiveness of its class offerings.
b	The curriculum should be consistent with the program's mission.	S
C.	The program should be able to demonstrate that there is an appropriate allocation of resources for curriculum delivery that is consistent with the mission of the program, the number of graduates, and the number of major/minor and general education SCHs produced.	С	One constant refrain in our discussions with faculty and students was that the program is badly in need of additional faculty and staff. It was surprising to the committee that the program(s) in the college are required to rent the various theaters they use for their productions. The committee found the explanations for this situation unconvincing and confusing.
d	Courses to support the major/minor/general education/service programs are offered on a regular basis to ensure students are able to complete graduation requirements in a timely manner.	С	A consistent student complaint was the lack of information about when courses will be offered. Perhaps additional faculty will allow for more regular offerings/rotations of classes. The program might consider providing students with an easily accessible list of course offerings looking forward at least two years.

STANDARD C - STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ASSESSMENT

Evaluate the extent to which the program has clearly defined outcomes.

		Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
6		Learning outcomes should describe the expected knowledge, skills, and behaviors that students will have achieved at the time of graduation (overarching program goals).	S
1		Learning outcomes must support the goals of the program and the constituencies served.	S
	-	Learning outcomes should be directly linked to the program's curriculum. An explicit curriculum grid illustrating this alignment, as well as the depth to which each course addresses each outcome, is publicly available.	S

Evaluate the effectiveness of the assessment process based on the following elements.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
a.	The program has a developed set of measures for assessment that are clearly defined and appropriately applied.	S
b.	Each learning outcome is assessed with at least one direct measure of learning; thresholds for acceptable performance are defined (for each measure) and published.	S
c.	Demonstrate that evidence of learning is being gathered on a regular basis across the program, that the evidence is aggregated, and reported at the aggregate.	S
d.	Demonstrate that these measures are being used in a systematic manner on a regular basis and are reviewed against department-established thresholds, i.e., are the program faculty meeting regularly to discuss the evidence?	S
e.	Demonstrate that the assessment of the program mission and student outcomes is being used to improve and further develop the program. Is the evidence acted upon? Is it clear what drives program change?	S	It is abundantly clear that the program is conducting honest and thoughtful self-assessment of its offerings and is using the results of that assessment to drive curriculum revisions.

STANDARD D - ACADEMIC ADVISING

Evaluate the following related to the advising process.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
a	The program has a clearly defined strategy for advising their major/minor, or BIS students that is continually assessed for its effectiveness.	S t	Students receive appropriate assistance in planning their individual programs of study.	G	Although it is commendable that there are two layers of advisement, of the 11 students this committee met with, several noted that there are occasional discrepancies between information provided by departmental advisors and college advisors.
C	Students receive needed assistance in making career decisions and in seeking placement, whether in employment or graduate school.		The program's commitment to providing students (and particularly the students focusing on the technical elements of theater) with regular and valuable professional experience—either via internships or by working directly on performances—is to be highly commended.

STANDARD E – FACULTY

Evaluate the extent to which the faculty demonstrates the following characteristics.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
a.	Faculty size, composition, qualifications, and professional development activities must result from a planning process which is consistent with the program's mission.	X	While we can assume that the department is deliberate in its hiring processes and strategic planning, we do not have enough information to speak to this element.
b.	The program maintains a core of full-time faculty sufficient to provide stability and ongoing quality improvement for the degree programs offered.	W	The most consistent complaint from both faculty and staff is that the program is badly in need of additional faculty and staff. Faculty are routinely providing uncompensated overtime labor, and faculty are being required to teach additional sections of courses that then limit their ability to provide other course offerings. This committee also heard requests from students for instructors of voice, diction and movement.
c.	Contract/adjunct faculty who provide instruction to students (day/evening, off/on campus) are academically and professionally qualified.	S
d.	The program should demonstrate efforts to achieve demographic diversity in its faculty.	С	Both the faculty and the students recognize that there is a lack of diversity among the faculty. While we understand that there are a variety of factors leading to this issue, the department might consider emphasizing this in job ads the diversity of Ogden as a city or by reaching out to certain organizations that might be able to help with outreach to BIPOC candidates.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
e.	The program should have appropriate procedures for the orientation of new contract/adjunct faculty.	X	Although we did not meet with any contract or adjunct faculty, we know that the university offers a new faculty retreat, that the college offers a beginning of semester gathering, and that this department does, as well.
f.	Processes are in place to determine appropriate teaching assignments and service workloads, to guide and mentor contract/adjunct faculty, and to provide adequate support for activities which implement the program's mission.
σ	Teaching is systematically monitored to assess its effectiveness, and revised periodically to reflect new objectives and to incorporate improvements based on appropriate assessment methods. For both contract and adjunct faculty, there is evidence of:  • Effective creation and delivery of instruction. • Ongoing evaluation and improvement of instruction. • Innovation in instructional processes.	S	The department appears to conduct regular assessments of teaching.
h.	A formal, periodic review process exists for all faculty, and the results of the reviews are available.		The self-study indicates that faculty are reviewed in their second, third, fourth, and sixth years.

Rating: S = Strength, G = Good, C = Concern, W = Weakness, X = did not evaluate (please indicate why)

STANDARD F - PROGRAM SUPPORT

Evaluate the nature and adequacy of the program support based on the following elements.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
г	The number and capabilities of the support staff are adequate to meet the mission and objectives of the program.		This committee feels that the program needs a Master Electrician and a Sound Tech. This could possibly be the same person.
t	. Administrative support is present in assisting in the selection and development of support staff.	S
C	The facilities, equipment, and library support needs are adequate to meet the mission and goals of the program.	C	This committee feels strongly that the program should not have to rent their own facilities. The logic given for reasons was flawed and not clearly defined.

STANDARD G - RELATIONSHIPS WITH EXTERNAL COMMUNITIES

Evaluate the relationships according to the following elements.

	Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
a	If there are formal relationships between the program and external communities of interest they should be clearly defined.	S
b	Such relationships should have a clearly defined role and evidence of their contribution to the program (curriculum, equipment, faculty, budget, etc.) should be demonstrated.	S
С	If the program has an external advisory committee, it should meet regularly and minutes of the meetings be made available.	X

STANDARD H - PROGRAM SUMMARY

Evaluate the effectiveness of the program to implement recommendations and make changes based on previous reviews.

		Element	Rating	Comments and/or Recommendations for Change
8	]	The program must show how it has implemented any recommendations from the previous review and what effect these changes had on the program. If any recommendations were not implemented the program should explain why they were not put into place.	S	The program's honest attention to its self-assessment has resulted in a clear-eyed approach to the most pressing issues it is currently facing: budget and recruiting (which is a function of budget).

Rating: S = Strength, G = Good, C = Concern, W = Weakness, X = did not evaluate (please indicate why)

Please include any other notes you feel are relevant to your review of the program:
