PIVOT FILTER GUIDE

Navigating some of the filters on Pivot can be tricky, so here is a little guide to help you narrow your funding searches. Select each of these filters to ensure that you are seeing the most applicable funding opportunities. Keep in mind that any additional filters you apply besides the following will drastically limit the amount of opportunities visible.

For "Funding Types", this can vary based on what you are looking for. The most common types are research or program development.
