Expedition Vote is a 24-hour challenge. The list of challenges is released to the participating school approximately 48 hours before the challenge begins, but teams may not receive points for challenges completed before and after the 24-hour time frame. The date for Expedition Vote is October 9th.

Each team scoring the highest points at their school will receive a prize from the Lt. Governor. The second and third place teams at Weber State will receive prizes from the Walker Institute of Politics and Public Service. The team in the state who scores the highest points will receive a GRAND PRIZE.

All participants must be at least 18 years of age and MUST sign the Expedition Vote Waiver prior to participating in the challenge. All participants must adhere to applicable federal, state, or local laws or ordinances while performing the challenges.

Any team that falsifies a challenge or falsely attributes points to their team will be disqualified.

Teams must contain a majority of school affiliates. This means that in teams of: School affiliates include faculty, staff, alumni, students, and concurrent enrollment students. Each Expedition Vote team can have between 2-6 people. Each team must complete the challenges as a team – team members cannot separate at any time during the challenge. Team composition must have a majority of school affiliates. So, if there are 2 people on the team, both must be school affiliates. If 6 people are on a team, 4 must be school affiliates.

Teams receive points by performing challenges listed in the official challenge list. In order to get credit for performing the challenge, teams must submit their photos and videos to Leah Murray at lmurray@weber.edu along with the challenge list.
